To be completed by candidate:

Name: _____

Title: _____

Institution: _____

The above-named candidate has applied for a Japan Studies Institute (JSI) Fellowship on "Incorporating Japanese Studies into the Undergraduate Curriculum" sponsored by the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU).

The Institute is designed to provide faculty members an opportunity to gain an understanding of major historical, social, and economic trends and issues in Japan; infuse courses they now teach with the major themes of the Institute; develop new courses around these themes; contribute to internationalizing the undergraduate curriculum; and/or increase international understanding in the community-at-large.

To nominate this candidate, an appropriate administrator at the institution (department chair, dean, etc.) should complete and sign this form. Institutional nomination implies that the institution is willing to pay the registration fee (AASCU-member institution $695; non-AASCU member institution $895) if the candidate is accepted for the Institute.

Nomination Statement

To be completed by an appropriate administrator at the institution (department chair, dean, etc.): I hereby nominate this candidate for the 2013 Japan Studies Institute Fellowship competition.
