Politics and the Yellowstone Ecosystem
A Weeklong Seminar in Yellowstone National Park | July 27 – August 1, 2015

Seminar Highlights
- Participate in a study of political conflict in the world’s first national park
- Examine the political controversies over wolves, grizzlies, snowmobiles, and bison
- Meet and listen to stakeholders on all sides
- Learn how to design courses to help prepare students to understand and engage in conflict management and resolution over national and local public resources

The program begins late afternoon on Monday, July 27th and ends at noon on Saturday, August 1st. The program will be held at Mammoth Hot Springs Hotel in Yellowstone National Park. The cost of the program is $1,395, which includes five (5) nights individual room lodging at Mammoth Hotel (each participant will have a separate hotel room or cabin); all instruction and instructional materials, AV rental, classroom rental; in-park transportation; and several meals, including reception and dinner the first night, lunch Tuesday, and breakfast Wednesday. Space does not allow for guest participation in the full program. However, guests and family members are welcome to attend some classroom lectures, a few field trips, and evening films and presentations. Please see the attached detailed program description for more details.

For more information on this program or registration materials, visit http://www.aascu.org/programs/adp/SPL/ or contact George Mehaffy, 202.478.4672 (mehaffyg@aascu.org) or Jennifer Domagal-Goldman, 202.478.7833 (domagalj@aascu.org).