PROVOST, VICE PRESIDENT OF STUDENT AFFAIRS, CHIEF BUSINESS OFFICER)

Program Overview

The Emerging Leaders Program \(ELP\) is a leadership development program tailored to the needs of early- to mid-career academic and administrative emerging leaders who are exploring opportunities to advance to mid-level administrative positions. ELP will prepare participants to be effective leaders; to view every decision through a diversity, equity, and inclusion lens; and to further their institutions' path to equitable student success.

Program Format & Timeline

The 2022 ELP will be conducted in a hybrid format, held both in-person and virtually, including:

- Six two-hour interactive virtual sessions (monthly, May and August-December)
- A one and a half-day intensive at AASCU's Washington, DC offices, June 15-17, 2022
- Five optional one-hour networking and reflection sessions (monthly, May and August-December)
- A project or initiative the participant leads on their home campus or community
